Fiches Belges

The Fiches Belges is a tool that provides practical information on specific sets of measures that are covered by judicial cooperation in criminal matters.

The Fiches Belges helps you to:

- check whether a measure is applicable in a certain country
- check which language you must use in your request for cooperation
- generally see which information you must include in your request.

compare measures between 2 countries

The measures are divided into 10 groups:

- Tracing & interception of (tele)communications
- Agents & informers – Infiltration
- Examination, body search & expert evaluation
- Documents – Obtaining
- Assets – Sequestration, confiscation & restitution
- Places – Visit & search
- Witnesses, victims, suspects – Summoning & hearing
- Cross-border operations
- Measures specific to Mutual Recognition Instruments
- Transfer of proceedings

The tool is available here (note: you will leave the e-Justice Portal).
