Slovenia

This section provides you with an overview of Slovenia's business register.

What does the Slovenian Business Register (Poslovni register Slovenija) offer?

The Slovenian Business Register (PRS) is managed by the Agency of the Republic of Slovenia for Public Legal Records and Related Services (Agencija Republike Slovenije za javnopravne evidence in storitve – AJPES).

The Slovenian Business Register is the central public database of information on all businesses with a registered office in Slovenia which are engaged in gainful or not-for-profit activities and information on subsidiaries and other divisions of those businesses. The register also contains information on the subsidiaries of foreign businesses performing activities in Slovenia. The register includes the following categories:

companies (partnerships and corporations)

sole traders

legal entities governed by public law

legal entities governed by private law

societies

natural persons performing registered or regulated activities

subsidiaries and other divisions of businesses

main offices of foreign businesses

other units.

A range of registration data is available for each entry in the Slovenian Business Register (identification number, company name, tax number, details on representatives and founders, etc.).

direct access to information via the ePRS application, and provision of information for re-use.

What does it include?ePRS application

The ePRS application allows users to access information on individual entries in the Slovenian business register for businesses engaged in economic activities within the Republic of Slovenia.

Is access to the Slovenian business register free of charge?

Access is free of charge, but users must log in to the portal (new users must register first).

How to search the Slovenian business register

Users must log in to the portal to be able to search the register.
