

Please note that the original language version of this page fi has been amended recently. The language version you are now viewing is currently being prepared by our translators.

Finnish

Swipe to change

Bankruptcy and insolvency registers

Finland

Finland has two public insolvency registers. The Register on Bankruptcies and Reorganisation, the Register on Restructuring Private Debts and the Register on Bans on Business Operations are public registers from which everyone can order extracts subject to a charge. Using the data stored in the registers, you can look after your interests when demanding payments or concluding agreements.

There is no official translation of the language version you are viewing.

You can access a machine translated version of this content here. Please note that it is only provided for contextual purposes. The owner of this page accepts no responsibility or liability whatsoever with regard to the quality of this machine translated text.

----English----

What does the Finnish insolvency register offer?

The Register on Bankruptcies and Reorganisation contains data on applications for and decisions on bankruptcies and reorganisation.

The Register on Restructuring Private Debts contains data on applications for and decisions on restructuring private debts (including payment schedules).

Is access to the Finnish insolvency register free of charge?

No. You need to request the information from the Finnish Legal Register Centre. An extract costs €10.00

How to search the Finnish insolvency registers

The request for information should include the following information:

Register on Bankruptcies and Reorganisation

Data necessary for an order:

Company name

Business identification number

Applicant's name and address

Register on restructuring private debts

Data necessary for an order:

Person's name

Identity number

Applicant's name and address

History of the Finnish insolvency register

The registers contain information dating back to 1995.

Last update: 30/06/2019

The national language version of this page is maintained by the respective Member State. The translations have been done by the European Commission service. Possible changes introduced in the original by the competent national authority may not be yet reflected in the translations. The European Commission accepts no responsibility or liability whatsoever with regard to any information or data contained or referred to in this document. Please refer to the legal notice to see copyright rules for the Member State responsible for this page.