

Please note that the original language version of this page lv has been amended recently. The language version you are now viewing is currently being prepared by our translators.

Swipe to change

Bankruptcy and insolvency registers

Latvia

This section provides you with an introduction to Latvia's insolvency register.

There is no official translation of the language version you are viewing.

You can access a machine translated version of this content here. Please note that it is only provided for contextual purposes. The owner of this page accepts no responsibility or liability whatsoever with regard to the quality of this machine translated text.

-----English-----BulgarianSpanishCzechDanishGermanEstonianGreekFrenchCroatianItalianLithuanianHungarian

MalteseDutchPolishPortugueseRomanianSlovakSlovenianFinnishSwedish

- What does the Latvian insolvency register offer?

The Latvian insolvency register provides information on:

- administrators;
- insolvency proceedings in respect of natural and legal persons;
- legal protection proceedings;
- non-judicial legal protection proceedings;
- statistical data.

The insolvency register is accessible to all and its records are reliable. It is under the authority of the Register of Enterprises of the Republic of Latvia.

Is access to the Latvian insolvency register free of charge?

Yes, information in the Latvian insolvency register can be accessed free of charge, but a fee is payable if a member of the public wishes to receive information in the form of a document.

To receive from the Register of Enterprises a statement or other document containing the personal identification code of a debtor (natural person) or an administrator, contact the Register of Enterprises with your request for information or apply electronically via the portal Latvija.lv.

How to search the Latvian insolvency register

Administrators

The section Administratori contains information on administrators, namely:

- first name;
- surname;
- office address and contact information;
- the number of the certificate;
- the date of expiry of the certificate.

Information on administrators whose certificates have expired is available from the historical records under Vēsturiskie dati. The link 'Izziņa' gives access to all the information that has been recorded in the Latvian insolvency register on each individual administrator.

Search

To search for information in the insolvency register on a particular subject (natural or legal person), use the section Meklēt. Information can be filtered by the following criteria:

- registration number (for legal persons) or identity number (for natural persons);
- name or title;
- court area;
- period when the proceeding was initiated;
- type of proceeding (insolvency proceeding, legal protection proceeding, non-judicial legal protection proceeding);
- character of proceeding (local, cross-border primary, cross-border secondary).

Search results are displayed alongside the link 'Uzņēmumu reģistra izziņa', where all the information in the insolvency register on a particular subject is available, including scanned documents containing administrators' notices on creditors' meetings and their agenda.

Journal

To view the records entered in the insolvency register on a specific date, use the section Žurnāls. By default, today's records are displayed. Use the calendar to view records registered on other dates or use the sub-section Mēneša žurnāls to filter the records by month. Each record contains a link ('Izziņa') to detailed information on particular insolvency proceedings.

Statistics

The section Statistika contains various statistical information related to insolvency and legal protection proceedings. The link 'Uzņēmumu reģistra izziņa' provides all the information held in the insolvency register on a particular subject.

History of the Latvian insolvency register

The information held in the register dates back to 1 January 2008.

Links

Additional information on the Latvian insolvency register

State insolvency administration agency

Last update: 07/01/2016

The national language version of this page is maintained by the respective Member State. The translations have been done by the European Commission service. Possible changes introduced in the original by the competent national authority may not be yet reflected in the translations. The European Commission accepts no responsibility or liability whatsoever with regard to any information or data contained or referred to in this document. Please refer to the legal notice to see copyright rules for the Member State responsible for this page.

Member States in charge of the management of national content pages are in the process of updating some of the content on this website in the light of the withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the European Union. If the site contains content that does not yet reflect the withdrawal of the United Kingdom, it is unintentional and will be addressed.