

Please note that the original language version of this page has been amended recently. The language version you are now viewing is currently being prepared by our translators.

Swipe to change

Croatian

European Case Law Identifier (ECLI)

Croatia

In the Republic of Croatia the ECLI has not been introduced into the database of case law which is kept at the Supreme Court of the Republic of Croatia (Vrhovni sud Republike Hrvatske), and which can be accessed on the Supreme Court's website. Consequently, given the importance of the ECLI system and the need to introduce it in all the Member States of the EU, the Ministry of Justice of the Republic of Croatia and the Supreme Court of the Republic of Croatia decided to submit a tender for the implementation of the ECLI system under the Justice Programme 2014-2020 of the Directorate-General for Justice and Consumers.

It is a source of great satisfaction to us that the above-mentioned project was recently given official approval by the European Commission and that we shall start to introduce the ECLI system, together with about ten project partners, at the beginning of October of this year.

Last update: 06/09/2016

The national language version of this page is maintained by the respective Member State. The translations have been done by the European Commission service. Possible changes introduced in the original by the competent national authority may not be yet reflected in the translations. The European Commission accepts no responsibility or liability whatsoever with regard to any information or data contained or referred to in this document. Please refer to the legal notice to see copyright rules for the Member State responsible for this page.