

Home>Taking legal action>European Judicial Atlas in civil matters>Mediation

Mediation

Bulgaria

National Law  (1069 Kb)

Article 10 - Information on competent courts or authorities

The authorities competent to receive requests under Article 6(1) and (2) of the Directive are the district courts.

Under Section 18(1) of the Mediation Act, headed 'Enforceability of the settlement', a settlement in a legal dispute reached through mediation has the force of a court settlement and is subject to approval by the district courts.

Under Section 18(2) of the Mediation Act the court approves the settlement after it has been confirmed by the parties, provided it is not contrary to the Act or accepted principles of morality.

Last update: 26/09/2022

The national language version of this page is maintained by the respective Member State. The translations have been done by the European Commission service. Possible changes introduced in the original by the competent national authority may not be yet reflected in the translations. The European Commission accepts no responsibility or liability whatsoever with regard to any information or data contained or referred to in this document. Please refer to the legal notice to see copyright rules for the Member State responsible for this page.