

Home>Taking legal action>European Judicial Atlas in civil matters>Mediation

Mediation

Finland

Article 10 - Information on competent courts or authorities

Competent court

A settlement referred to in this Chapter may be made enforceable in the District Court in the jurisdiction of which a party to the settlement is domiciled or permanently resident. If none of the parties are domiciled or permanently resident in Finland, the Helsinki District Court shall be the competent court. Information about the competent district courts is available electronically at <http://www.oikeus.fi/tuomioistuimet/en/index/yhteystiedot.html>, a website maintained by the Ministry of Justice.

Last update: 23/12/2019

The national language version of this page is maintained by the respective Member State. The translations have been done by the European Commission service. Possible changes introduced in the original by the competent national authority may not be yet reflected in the translations. The European Commission accepts no responsibility or liability whatsoever with regard to any information or data contained or referred to in this document. Please refer to the legal notice to see copyright rules for the Member State responsible for this page.

Member States in charge of the management of national content pages are in the process of updating some of the content on this website in the light of the withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the European Union. If the site contains content that does not yet reflect the withdrawal of the United Kingdom, it is unintentional and will be addressed.