

Article 10 - Information on competent courts or authorities

Regarding the implementation of this Article, the Latvian authorities hereby inform you that in the Republic of Latvia, requests that written agreements resulting from mediation be made enforceable are received by district (city) courts. At the same time, the Latvian authorities would inform you that written agreements resulting from mediation can be made enforceable in Latvia only in so far as this is provided for in Regulation (EU) No 1215/2012 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 12 December 2012 on jurisdiction and the recognition and enforcement of judgments in civil and commercial matters, or in Council Regulation (EC) No 44/2001 of 22 December 2000 on jurisdiction and the recognition and enforcement of judgments in civil and commercial matters for proceedings instituted before 10 January 2015.

Last update: 06/02/2019

The national language version of this page is maintained by the respective Member State. The translations have been done by the European Commission service. Possible changes introduced in the original by the competent national authority may not be yet reflected in the translations. The European Commission accepts no responsibility or liability whatsoever with regard to any information or data contained or referred to in this document. Please refer to the legal notice to see copyright rules for the Member State responsible for this page.

Member States in charge of the management of national content pages are in the process of updating some of the content on this website in the light of the withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the European Union. If the site contains content that does not yet reflect the withdrawal of the United Kingdom, it is unintentional and will be addressed.