

Home>Taking legal action>European Judicial Atlas in civil matters>Mediation

In the field of civil justice, pending procedures and proceedings initiated before the end of the transition period will continue under EU law. The e-Justice Portal, on the basis of a mutual agreement with the UK, will maintain the relevant information related to the United Kingdom until the end of 2024.

Mediation

Northern Ireland

Article 10 - Information on competent courts or authorities

If you wish to enforce in Northern Ireland the content of a mediation agreement, you should make an application to do so according to the procedures as set out:

- If you have not initiated proceedings in a court yet, you should lodge an application to make the mediation settlement agreement enforceable at either the High Court or any one of the other courts (see the link provided).
- However, if you have already existing proceedings in a court in Northern Ireland, you should lodge an application to make the mediation settlement agreement enforceable at the court where your case is already listed for a hearing.

A list of courts may be found on the Courts and Tribunals service

Last update: 25/02/2019

The national language version of this page is maintained by the respective Member State. The translations have been done by the European Commission service. Possible changes introduced in the original by the competent national authority may not be yet reflected in the translations. The European Commission accepts no responsibility or liability whatsoever with regard to any information or data contained or referred to in this document. Please refer to the legal notice to see copyright rules for the Member State responsible for this page.