Prava žrtava kaznenih djela (po zemljama)

Hrvatska

Žrtve kaznenih djela imaju niz prava u prethodnom i kaznenom postupku, a posebno se štiti djecu te žrtve kaznenih djela protiv spolne slobode i trgovanja ljudima

Žrtva kaznenog djela ima:

pravo na pristup službama za potporu žrtvama kaznenih djela, pravo na djelotvornu psihološku i drugu stručnu pomoć i potporu tijela, organizacije ili ustanove za pomoć žrtvama kaznenih djela u skladu sa zakonom, pravo na zaštitu od zastrašivanja i odmazde, pravo na zaštitu dostojanstva tijekom ispitivanja žrtve kao svjedoka, pravo da bude saslušana bez neopravdane odgode nakon podnošenja kaznene prijave te da se daljnja saslušanja provode samo u mjeri u kojoj je to nužno za potrebe kaznenog postupka, pravo na pratnju osobe od povjerenja pri poduzimanju radnji u kojima sudjeluje, pravo da se medicinski zahvati prema žrtvi poduzimaju u najmanjoj mjeri i samo ako su krajnje nužni za potrebe kaznenog postupka, pravo podnijeti prijedlog za progon i privatnu tužbu sukladno odredbama Kaznenog zakona, pravo sudjelovati u kaznenom postupku kao oštećenik, pravo biti obaviještena o odbacivanju kaznene prijave (članak 206. stavak 3. ovoga Zakona) i odustajanju državnog odvjetnika od kaznenog progona te pravo preuzeti kazneni progon umjesto državnog odvjetnika, pravo na obavijest od državnog odvjetnika o poduzetim radnjama povodom njezine prijave (članak 206.a ovoga Zakona) i podnošenje pritužbe višem državnom odvjetniku (članak 206.b ovoga Zakona), pravo da na njezin zahtjev bez nepotrebne odgode bude obaviještena o ukidanju pritvora ili istražnog zatvora, bijegu okrivljenika i otpuštanju osuđenika s izdržavanja kazne zatvora te mjerama koje su poduzete radi njezine zaštite, pravo da na njezin zahtjev bude obaviještena o svakoj odluci kojom se pravomoćno okončava kazneni postupak, druga prava propisana zakonom.

Žrtva kaznenog djela protiv spolne slobode i kaznenog djela trgovanja ljudima, pored prethodno navedenih prava, ima i dodatna prava:

prije ispitivanja razgovarati sa savjetnikom, na teret proračunskih sredstava, na opunomoćenika na teret proračunskih sredstava, da ju u policiji i državnom odvjetništvu ispituje osoba istog spola te da ju, ako je to moguće, u slučaju ponovnog ispitivanja ispituje ta ista osoba, uskratiti odgovor na pitanja koja nisu u vezi s kaznenim djelom, a odnose se na strogo osobni život žrtve, zahtijevati da bude ispitana putem audio-video uređaja (članak 292. stavak 4. ovoga Zakona), na tajnost osobnih podataka, zahtijevati isključenje javnosti s rasprave.

Ako je dijete žrtva kaznenog djela, pored navedenih prava žrtve ima i dodatna prava:

opunomoćenika na teret proračunskih sredstava, tajnost osobnih podataka, isključenje javnosti.

Djeca su sve osobe koje nisu navršile 18 godina.

Djecu svjedoke i žrtve ispituje sudac istrage na dokaznom ročištu, a poziv djetetu svjedoku upućuje se preko njegovih roditelja ili skrbnika.

Privatna tužba

Po prijavi kaznenog djela, u većini slučajeva, postupak će voditi državni odvjetnik po službenoj dužnosti.

Za kaznena djela za koja se kazneni postupak pokreće po privatnoj tužbi moguće je podnijeti privatnu tužbu. Tužba se mora podnijeti u roku od tri mjeseca od dana kada je ovlaštena fizička ili pravna osoba saznala za kazneno djelo i počinitelja.

Imovinskopravni zahtjev

Prijedlog za ostvarivanje imovinskopravnog zahtjeva u kaznenom postupku može podnijeti oštećenik.

Žrtva kaznenog djela je, ujedno, i oštećenik koji pred sudom ima pravo postaviti imovinskopravni zahtjev.

Imovinskopravni zahtjev može obuhvaćati:

potraživanja s osnove naknade štete koja može biti materijalna ili nematerijalna (pretrpljena bol, strah);
povrat stvari - ako oštećenik odnosno žrtva može dokazati da je bila vlasnik ili zakonski držatelj te stvari; poništanje određenog pravnog posla - ako je zbog kaznenog djela nastao pravni posao imovinskopravnog karaktera (ako vas je okrivljenik silom naveo na sklopanje nekog ugovora).

Imovinskopravni zahtjev je moguće podnijeti u kaznenom postupku ili u posebnoj građanskoj parnici protiv okrivljenog. Ako se zahtjev podnosi tijekom kaznenog postupka, pretpostavka za njegovo prihvatanje uvjet je da sud okrivljenika proglasi krivim.

U građanskoj parnici to nije preduvjet za uspjeh imovinskopravnog zahtjeva.

Prava oštećenika tijekom istrage i u kaznenom postupku

Žrtva koja u kaznenom postupku sudjeluje kao oštećenik ima prava:

služiti se vlastitim jezikom uključujući i znakovni jezik gluhih i gluhoslijepih i na pomoć tumača ako ne razumije ili se ne služi hrvatskim jezikom odnosno prevoditelja ili tumača znakovnog jezika ako se radi o gluhom ili gluhoslijepom oštećeniku;
podnijeti prijedlog za ostvarivanje imovinskopravnog zahtjeva te privremenih mjera osiguranja;
imati opunomoćenika;
upozoravati na činjenice i predlagati dokaze;
prisustvovati dokaznom ročištu;
prisustvovati raspravi i sudjelovati u dokaznom postupku te iznijeti završni govor; izvršiti uvid u spis predmeta;

zatražiti obavijest od državnog odvjetnika o poduzetim radnjama povodom vaše prijave i podnijeti pritužbu višem državnom odvjetniku;

podnijeti žalbu;

zatražiti povrat u prijašnje stanje;

dobiti obavijest o ishodu kaznenog postupka.

Državno odvjetništvo i sud dužni su prije i tijekom kaznenog postupka u svakom stadiju postupka ispitati postoji li mogućnost da okrivljenik oštećeniku popravi štetu uzrokovanu kaznenim djelom. Također su dužni upozoriti oštećenika na pravo da se služi vlastitim jezikom, uključujući i znakovni jezik gluhih i gluhoslijepih, i na pomoć tumača ako ne govori ili ne razumije hrvatski jezik, odnosno prevoditelja ili tumača znakovnog jezika ako se radi o gluhom ili gluhoslijepom oštećeniku, na pravo na podnošenje prijedloga za ostvarivanje imovinskopravnog zahtjeva te privremenih mjera osiguranja, na pravo da upozori na činjenice i predlaže dokaze, na pravo na prisustvuje raspravi i sudjelovati u dokaznom postupku te iznijeti završni govor, na pravo da izvrši uvid u spis predmeta i na pravo da zatraži obavijest od državnog odvjetnika o poduzetim radnjama povodom njegove prijave i podnese pritužbu višem državnom odvjetniku.

Pravo na novčanu naknadu

Zakonom o novčanoj naknadi žrtvama kaznenih djela (NN br.80/08 i 27/11) propisano je pravo na novčanu naknadu koju ima žrtva kaznenog djela s elementima nasilja počinjenog s namjerom na teritoriju Republike Hrvatske, odnosno njihovi srodnici pod uvjetima određenim tim Zakonom.

Dakle, prethodno navedenim Zakonom uređuje se pravo na novčanu naknadu žrtvama kaznenih djela nasilja počinjenih s namjerom, pretpostavke i postupak za ostvarivanje prava na naknadu, tijela koja donose odluke i sudjeluju u postupku odlučivanja o pravu na naknadu, te se određuju tijela i postupak u prekograničnim slučajevima.

Žrtva kaznenog djela nasilja počinjenog s namjerom ostvaruje pravo na novčanu naknadu iz sredstava Državnog proračuna.

Policija, državno odvjetništvo i sudovi dužni su dati informaciju o pravu na naknadu, dati potrebne obrasce za podnošenje zahtjeva te su na traženje žrtve dužni dati opće upute i informacije o načinu ispunjavanja zahtjeva te o potrebnoj popratnoj dokumentaciji.

Zahtjev za novčanu naknadu podnosi se Ministarstvu pravosuđa na obrascu kojeg je moguće preuzeti sa stranica Ministarstva.

Obrazac zahtjeva za novčanu naknadu žrtvama kaznenog djela_hr  (223 Kb)

Zahtjev se mora podnijeti najkasnije u roku šest mjeseci od dana počinjenja kaznenog djela. Ako žrtva zbog opravdanih razloga nije mogla u tom roku podnijeti zahtjev, onda mora podnijeti najkasnije u roku tri mjeseca od dana kada su prestali postojati ti razlozi, a najkasnije u roku tri godine od dana kada je počinjeno djelo.

Ako je žrtva maloljetnik ili osoba lišena poslovne sposobnosti, a njezin zakonski zastupnik nije podnio zahtjev u roku od šest mjeseci od dana počinjenja djela, rok od šest mjeseci počinje teći od dana kada osoba navrší 18 godina ili od dana kad je po nastupanju punoljetnosti žrtve pokrenut kazneni postupak ili od dana kad je osobi vraćena poslovna sposobnost.

Pravo na novčanu naknadu može ostvariti:

žrtva kaznenog djela s elementima nasilja ako je državljanin Republike Hrvatske, odnosno državljanin države članice Europske unije ili na njenom teritoriju ima prebivalište, te ako je kazneno djelo počinjeno na teritoriju RH; žrtva koja je pretrpjela teške tjelesne ozljede ili joj je narušeno zdravlje kao posljedica kaznenog djela (ima pravo na naknadu troškova liječenja, pod uvjetom da nije obvezno zdravstveno osigurana i to do visine zdravstvenog osiguranja u Republici Hrvatskoj, te naknadu izgubljene zarade do iznosa od 35.000 kn); osoba koja je bliski krvni srodnik preminule žrtve (bračni i izvanbračni drug, dijete, roditelj, posvojenik, posvojitelj, maćeha, očuh, pastorak i istospolni partner, baka, djed i unuk ako su sa žrtvom živjeli u zajedničkom kućanstvu) ima pravo na naknadu zbog gubitka zakonskog uzdržavanja do iznosa od 70.000 kn); u slučaju smrti žrtve osoba koja je platila pogrebne troškove ima pravo na naknadu u iznosu do najviše 5.000 kuna;

ako je kazneno djelo prijavljeno ili evidentirano u policiji ili državnom odvjetništvu u roku od šest mjeseci od dana počinjenja kaznenog djela, neovisno da li je počinitelj poznat ili ne.

Pri utvrđivanju visine naknade u obzir se uzimaju ponašanje žrtve tijekom i nakon kaznenog djela ili njezin doprinos nastanku i obujmu štete, da li se radi o neposrednoj žrtvi, te da li je ista i u kojem roku prijavila kazneno djelo nadležnim tijelima. Nadalje, ocjenjuje se suradnja žrtve s policijom i nadležnim tijelima kako bi se počinitelj privelo pravdi, te se uzima u obzir ako je neposredna žrtva pridonijela nastanku štete ili većoj šteti, iz kojeg razloga će imati pravo na srazmjerno nižu naknadu. Zahtjev će se odbiti ili naknada umanjiti ako se utvrdi da je žrtva uključena u organizirani kriminal ili u zločinačku organizaciju. Naknada se može odbiti ili umanjiti i kada bi davanje potpune naknade bilo suprotno načelu pravednosti, morala i javnom poretku.

Obavijest o otpustu počinitelja

Kada je optuženik osuđen na kaznu zatvora, Ministarstvo pravosuđa, Služba za podršku žrtvama i svjedocima žrtvu će informirati o datumu otpusta (o redovnom i uvjetnom otpustu) zatvorenika s izdržavanja kazne zatvora.

Zakonska obveza obavješćavanja žrtve o otpustu zatvorenika

Sukladno odredbama Zakona o izmjenama i dopunama Zakona o izvršenju kazne zatvora obveza Ministarstva pravosuđa Službe za podršku žrtvama i svjedocima) je obavijestiti žrtvu, oštećenika ili njihovu obitelj o otpustu zatvorenika s izdržavanja kazne zatvora.

Žrtvu se obavješćava o otpustu zatvorenika u slučajevima kada se radi o kaznenim djelima protiv spolne slobode i spolnog čudoređa, protiv života i tijela ili kaznenog djela s elementima nasilja.

Navedena informacija žrtvi, oštećeniku ili njihovoj obitelji daje se u slučaju redovnog i uvjetnog otpusta s izdržavanja kazne zatvora.

Također, prigodom odlučivanja o pogodnosti izlaska zatvorenika u mjesto prebivališta ili boravišta, kaznonice/zatvori mogu zahtijevati od Službe za podršku žrtvama i svjedocima podatke o reakciji žrtve ili obitelji žrtve vezano za utvrđivanje mogućnost korištenja pogodnosti izlaska. Služba za podršku žrtvama i svjedocima na temelju razgovora sa žrtvom izrađuje izvješća koje dostavlja kaznionici/zatvoru.

Podrška svjedocima i žrtvama

Podršku žrtvama i svjedocima u Republici Hrvatskoj koordinira Služba za podršku žrtvama i svjedocima, uspostavljena u Ministarstvu pravosuđa.

Žrtve i svjedoci mogu dobiti podršku i informacije o svojim pravima i postupcima na sudu, i to u Odjelima za podršku žrtvama i svjedocima.

Odjeli za podršku žrtvama i svjedocima su osnovani na 7 županijskih sudova i to u Zagrebu, Zadru, Osijeku, Vukovaru, Splitu, Sisku i Rijeci. Odjeli pružaju emocionalnu podršku, praktične informacije i informacije o pravima žrtvama, kao i podršku i informacije svjedocima te osobama u njihovoj pratnji. Odjeli pružaju podršku i na nadležnim općinskim i prekršajnim sudovima.

Informacije o pravima i vrstama pomoći žrtve mogu dobiti i na besplatni broj 116 006 Nacionalnog pozivnog centra za žrtve kaznenih djela i prekršaja na web stranici Nacionalnog pozivnog centra.

Ministarstvo pravosuđa, također žrtvama i svjedocima osigurava informacije o pravima i podršku, a upiti se mogu uputiti na: e-mail adresu:

zrtve.i.svjedoci@pravosudje.hr ili web stranicu Ministarstva pravosuđa Republike Hrvatske: <https://pravosudje.gov.hr/>

Podrška žrtvama i svjedocima u prekograničnim predmetima

Služba za podršku žrtvama i svjedocima, uspostavljena u okviru Ministarstva pravosuđa, pruža podršku i informacije i žrtvama i svjedocima pozvanim na sud putem međunarodne pravne pomoći (uključujući i svjedoke ratnih zločina).

Svjedocima pozvanim svjedočiti na sudove u Republiku Hrvatsku ili domaćim svjedocima koji su pozvani na sudove u inozemstvu šalju se informativna pisma.

Svjedocima ratnih zločina osigurava se fizička zaštita kad je to potrebno, te pomoć u pripremanju odlazaka i organizaciji pristupa nadležnom pravosudnom tijelu (za svjedoke i druge sudionike koji su pozvani na ispitivanje u kaznenim postupcima ratnih zločina pred nadležnim pravosudnim tijelima u Republici Hrvatskoj, kao i izvan Republike Hrvatske kada je takva podrška predmet zamolbe za međunarodnom pravnom pomoći).

1 - My rights as a victim of crime

What information will I get from the authority (e.g. police, public prosecutor) after the crime occurred but before I even report the crime?

The Code of Criminal Procedure does not regulate the contents of the information sheet the victim may be provided with after the offence has occurred and before it is reported. Everyone has the right and option to contact the Public Prosecutor's Office, where they can report a crime, deposit a statement, or make a submission on a matter falling within the Public Prosecutor's remit. Individuals contacting the Office receive information on how to report the crime and other basic information on their rights and obligations.

Police officers are required to record reports of crimes that are prosecuted ex officio.

Furthermore, everyone is entitled to appropriate police protection if there are reasonable grounds for such protection to be provided.

Victim and witness support departments, which have been established by seven county courts, provide victims with emotional support and information as to their rights (including technical and practical information). They also offer support and information to witnesses and to family members of both victims and witnesses. Information and support are provided regardless of the stage of proceedings. Victims receive information and support even if they fail to report the crime. Those departments also refer victims and witnesses to specialised civil society institutions and organisations, depending on their needs.

I don't live in the EU country where the crime took place (EU and non-EU citizens). How are my rights protected?

Provisions governing the rights of victims and civil parties apply equally without regard to nationality because Croatian criminal legislation applies to anyone who commits a crime in Croatia. Parties to and participants in proceedings are entitled to use their mother tongue.

The police, the Public Prosecutor's Office and the courts are required, under the Code of Criminal Procedure and the Victims of Crime (Financial Compensation) Act, to provide victims of crime with information on their rights under those acts. This means that the Public Prosecutor's Office and the courts are required to examine the possibilities, both before criminal proceedings and at any stage during them, for the individual charged to compensate the injured party for any loss/damage caused by the offence, and to inform the injured party – verbally in a language the victim understands and in writing in Croatian or English – of their right to use their mother tongue and to lodge a property-law claim and of their right to compensation). The Public Prosecutor's Office and the courts are also required to provide the victim, at their request, with general instructions and information on how to complete the claim and which supporting documents to submit. Information sheets containing information on the victim's right to compensation are available in Croatian and English, as is the Compensation Claim Form. These documents, in Croatian and English versions, can be downloaded from the website of the Croatian Ministry of Justice.

Any victim who reports a crime receives information on their rights from the police. After informing the victim verbally, the police officer provides the victim with information on their rights in writing and any available information on services protecting and supporting victims, including the toll-free victim support helpline number.

For individuals without any knowledge of Croatian, a rights information sheet is available from the police in other languages.

Volunteers at the National Call Centre for Victims of Crimes and Misdemeanours (116-006) provide emotional support, information on rights and practical information. They also refer victims to other competent services and organisations to ensure they receive any additional information and other forms of support and assistance. This helpline is toll-free, open from 8 am to 8 pm on weekdays and the staff can take calls in Croatian and English.

If I report a crime, what information will I receive?

(a) The victim and injured party are entitled, within two months of pressing charges or reporting a crime, to request information from the Public Prosecutor's Office on the action taken in response to the charges/report. They are informed by the Public Prosecutor's Office of the action taken within a reasonable timeframe, no later than thirty days from the date of the request, unless the request jeopardises the effectiveness of the proceedings. The decision to withhold such information must be communicated to the victim or injured party making the request.

(b) The Public Prosecutor will suspend the investigation by a decision, if:

the offence with which the individual is charged is not an offence prosecuted ex officio;

the circumstances exclude the charged individual's culpability, unless the unlawful act was committed in a state of mental incapacity;

the statute of limitations has expired for the crime or if the offence is subject to an amnesty or pardon, or if there are other circumstances proscribing prosecution; and there is no evidence that the individual charged has committed the offence.

The decision to suspend the investigation is sent to the injured party and the individual charged, who will immediately be released if they had been placed in custody or on remand. In addition to the decision letter, the injured party receives information, in accordance with Article 55 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, on how to pursue prosecution themselves.

(c) After examining the report and carrying out a check in the information system of the Public Prosecutor's Office, the Public Prosecutor will reject the report by a reasoned decision if it is clear from the report that:

the offence is not an offence that can be prosecuted ex officio;

the statute of limitations has expired for the offence, or the offence is subject to an amnesty or pardon, or the offence has already been finally adjudicated in court, or there are other circumstances proscribing prosecution;

the circumstances exclude culpability;

there are no reasonable grounds for suspecting that the individual charged committed the offence reported; or information in the report suggests that the report is not credible.

No appeals are allowed against the Public Prosecutor's decision to dismiss a report.

Unless otherwise provided for by the Code of Criminal Procedure, the Public Prosecutor notifies the victim of the decision to dismiss the report and the grounds for it within eight days. The Public Prosecutor will also provide information on how the victim may pursue prosecution themselves. The Public Prosecutor must promptly inform the person who made the report and the individual charged of the decision to dismiss the report, if so requested by either party.

If the Public Prosecutor cannot assess the credibility of the allegations from the report itself or if information in the report fails to provide sufficient grounds for a decision to initiate an investigation or gather evidence, it will conduct its own enquiries or instruct the police to do so.

(d) The custody supervisor must immediately release the individual arrested or detained:

if instructed to do so by the Public Prosecutor;

if the arrested individual was not interrogated within the statutory deadline; or if detention was cancelled.

(e) The Public Prosecutor can summon witnesses and experts to assist with taking of evidence. The summons may also be sent by the investigator if authorised by the Public Prosecutor. The court can summon witnesses and experts to testify at an evidentiary hearing or attend a court hearing. The competent body sets in advance the time and place where the evidence will be taken. The person summoned is warned of the consequences of any failure to attend.

Am I entitled to free interpreting or translation services (when I contact the police or other authorities, or during the investigation and trial)?

A victim participating in criminal proceedings as the injured party is entitled to:

use their mother tongue, including sign language, and request assistance from an interpreter if they do not understand or have a sufficient command of Croatian, or from a sign language interpreter if the injured party is deaf or deafblind.

How does the authority ensure that I understand and that I am understood (if I am a child; if I have a disability)?

Unless otherwise provided for by a separate law, the investigating judge may take evidence from any child witness under 14 years of age. The hearing takes place without the judge or the parties being present in the same room as the child, using an audio-video device operated by a professional assistant. The hearing is assisted by a psychologist, childhood education specialist, or other professional person. The hearing may also be attended by a parent or guardian, unless this is contrary to the interests of the investigation or the child. The parties may put questions to the child witness through a professional, subject to the investigating judge's approval. The hearing session is recorded using an audio-video device and the recording is sealed and appended to the minutes. The child witness may be summoned for a second hearing in exceptional circumstances only, with the same procedure being followed.

Unless otherwise provided for by a separate law, the investigating judge may also take evidence from child witnesses aged 14-18. Questioning of children, especially if they are the victim of the offence, must be handled carefully to ensure that it does not adversely affect their mental health. Particular care is taken to protect the child.

Any witness who cannot respond to a summons for reasons of old age, illness, or disability, may be heard in their own flat or other place where they are staying. Such witnesses may be heard using an audio-video device operated by a professional. If warranted by the witness's condition, the hearing is conducted in such a way as to allow the parties to put questions without being present in the same room as the witness. If required, the hearing is recorded using an audio-video device and the recording is sealed and appended to the minutes. At the victim's request, this same witness examination procedure can be followed if they are the victim of an offence against sexual freedom or morality, a human trafficking offence or an offence committed within the family. Such a witness may be summoned for a second hearing in exceptional circumstances only, if deemed necessary by the court.

Victim support services

Who provides victim support?

Victim and witness support departments, which have been established by seven county courts (Zagreb, Osijek, Split, Rijeka, Sisak, Zadar and Vukovar) provide support for victims and witnesses giving evidence at these courts and at the municipal courts of these cities/towns. These departments also provide support at misdemeanour courts in domestic violence cases and refer victims and witnesses to specialised civil society institutions and organisations, depending on their needs.

Information and support are provided by telephone and when the victim/witness enters the court building. Information is also provided by email.

For more information, please visit the following Croatian Ministry of Justice page.

Will the police automatically refer me to victim support?

When informing the victim about their rights, the police officer also provides the victim with information on their rights in writing and any available information on victim-support services, including the toll-free victim support helpline number. The rights information sheet includes the contact details of:

the competent victim and witness support department;

the civil society organisations in the relevant county;

the National Call Centre for Victims of Crimes and Misdemeanours (116-006);

How is my privacy protected?

Competent authorities may collect personal information only for purposes laid down by law, as part of their duties laid down in the Code of Criminal Procedure.

Personal information may be processed only when specified by a law or other legal provision, and such processing must be limited to the purpose for which the information has been collected. Further processing of such information is permitted, unless it is contrary to the purpose for which the information has been collected, and provided the competent bodies are authorised to process such information for another purpose laid down by law and the further processing is necessary and commensurate with the other purpose.

Personal information relating to someone's health or sexual life may be processed in exceptional cases only, where the criminal offence is subject to a custodial sentence of five years or more and could not be detected or prosecuted in any other way, or where detection/prosecution would be fraught with disproportionate difficulties.

No processing of personal information relating to race or ethnicity, political persuasion, religious or philosophical belief, or trade union membership is permitted.

Personal information collected for the purposes of criminal proceedings may be forwarded to government bodies in accordance with a special law, and to other legal entities, only if the Public Prosecutor's Office or the court finds they require such information for a purpose laid down by law. When such information is forwarded, the relevant legal entities are reminded of their duty to protect the data of the persons concerned.

Personal data may be used, in accordance with the relevant legislation, in other criminal proceedings, in other proceedings dealing with punishable acts that are conducted in Croatia, in procedures relating to international criminal justice assistance, and in international police cooperation efforts.

Do I have to report a crime before I can access victim support?

The victim receives information and support from the victim and witness support department of the relevant court or civil society organisation even if they fail to report the crime.

Personal protection if I'm in danger

In accordance with Article 99 of the Police Tasks and Powers Act, unless provided otherwise by a separate law, and for the period of time there are reasonable grounds for such action, the police provide appropriate protection for the victim and any other person who has provided or may provide information relevant to the criminal proceedings, or for any person close to them, if they or persons close to them are at risk of danger from the offender or other individuals involved in the criminal proceedings. Victim protection provided by the police means 24-hour physical protection.

What types of protection are available?

In accordance with Article 130 of the Misdemeanours Act, the police may, temporarily and for up to eight days, order a precautionary measure against the individual reasonably suspected of having committed the offence. In practice, this usually translates into injunctions prohibiting the suspect from visiting a particular place or area (eviction from the victim's home), from approaching a particular person, or from making or maintaining contact with a particular person. Within eight days the police file charges with the competent misdemeanour court, which will then make a decision as to whether to suspend or extend the precautionary measure ordered. In addition, during the misdemeanour proceedings, the court may, under the Domestic Violence (Protection) Act, order the following measures to be taken against the offender:

compulsory psychosocial treatment;

an injunction prohibiting the offender from approaching, harassing, or stalking the victim of domestic violence;

eviction from the shared home;

compulsory treatment for substance abuse.

Under the Misdemeanours Act, the court may also apply other protective and precautionary measures designed to protect the victim from being approached or harassed by the suspect.

Furthermore, in accordance with the Code of Criminal Procedure, the court and the Public Prosecutor may, instead of remanding the individual charged in custody, order one or more precautionary measures, including an injunction to prohibit the offender from visiting a particular place or area, from approaching a particular person, from making or maintaining contact with a particular person, or an injunction prohibiting the offender from stalking or harassing the victim or another person, or eviction from the victim's home.

Who can offer me protection?

The victim can obtain information from the police about all their rights, including information on their right to protection, the types of protection offered, and on action to be taken by the police to protect the victim.

Will someone assess my case to see if I am at risk of further harm by the offender?

Once the investigation has been completed and the relevant documents have been submitted to the competent criminal justice bodies, the police do not carry out any further assessment of the victim's needs, except to carry out any of the protective or precautionary measures ordered. If reports of new circumstances are received pointing to a renewed threat from the offender, the police will take further action to protect the victim in line with its assessment and the facts of the case.

Will someone assess my case to see if I am at risk of further harm by the criminal justice system (during investigation and trial)?

The criminal justice system (during investigative and court proceedings) operates in such a way as to respect the victim's rights and their standing in the criminal proceedings, in accordance with the Code of Criminal Procedure. Before examining the victim, the prosecuting body conducting the investigation makes an individual assessment of the victim's situation in cooperation with bodies, organisations or institutions that provide support and assistance to victims of crime. The individual assessment includes determining the need to apply special protection measures for the victim's benefit. If such a need exists, the prosecuting body determines the protection measures to be applied (special questioning arrangements for the victim, the use of communication technologies to prevent any visual contact between the victim and the offender, and other measures laid down by law). Where the victim of a crime is a child, the need to apply special protection measures is presumed and special protection measures are determined. The individual assessment takes particular account of the victim's personal characteristics, the type and nature of the offence, and the circumstances in which the offence was committed. Special attention is paid to victims who have suffered major harm because of the gravity of the offence, victims of an offence committed because of the victim's particular personal characteristics, and victims whose relationship to the offender makes them particularly vulnerable.

What protection is available for very vulnerable victims?

The criminal justice system (during investigative and court proceedings) operates in such a way as to respect the victim's rights and their standing in the criminal proceedings, in accordance with the Code of Criminal Procedure. I am a minor – do I have special rights?

Child victims of crime have the following additional rights:

the right to a representative paid for by the State;

the right to have his/her personal information treated confidentially;

the right to have the public excluded.

A child is any person under 18 years of age.

A child witness or victim is examined by the investigating judge at an evidentiary hearing, and the summons is sent to the child's parents or guardian.

My family member died because of the crime – what are my rights?

Under the Victims of Crime (Financial Compensation) Act, when the direct victim dies as a result of a violent crime, the indirect victim (spouse, partner, parent, foster child, foster parent, stepmother, stepfather or stepchild of the direct victim or the person with whom the direct victim lived in a same-sex relationship) is entitled to financial compensation as prescribed by the Victims of Crime (Financial Compensation) Act.

If the indirect victim was supported by the deceased (direct) victim, they are entitled to compensation of up to HRK 70 000 for loss of statutory maintenance and to compensation of up to HRK 5 000 for normal funeral expenses they have incurred.

Any person whose family member lost their life as a victim of a crime is entitled, as an injured party, to participate in the criminal proceedings and claim compensation (whether in criminal or civil proceedings).

My family member was a victim of crime – what are my rights?

'Indirect victim' means the spouse, partner, child, parent, foster child, foster parent, stepmother, stepfather or stepchild of the direct victim or the person with whom the direct victim lived in a same-sex relationship.

Grandparents and grandchildren can also be indirect victims, if one of them was the direct victim and they were permanently living together with the grandparents replacing the parents.

Non-marital and same-sex relationships are treated in accordance with Croatian law.

If the crime victim dies, indirect victims are entitled to compensation (for the loss of statutory maintenance and for normal funeral expenses).

Can I access mediation services? What are the conditions? Will I be safe during mediation?

Croatia operates the victim-offender mediation model in pre-criminal proceedings for minor and young adult offenders, under the conditional opportunity principle in accordance with the Juvenile Courts Act governing the special obligation for minor and young adult offenders to engage in the mediation process through out-of-court settlement. This means that if the minor offender complies with this obligation, they do not have to stand trial.

Since 2013, Croatia has had a total of 60 mediators, who received their training in a one-year programme consisting of 170 teaching hours (comprising lectures, assignments, role-play and practical mentoring exercises, and supervision). They are the only professionals in Croatia authorised to administer restorative justice in criminal cases. They received their certificates from the Croatian Ministry of Social Policy and Young People, the Out-of-Court Settlement Association, and UNICEF.

As a result, the central town of each Croatian county has an out-of-court settlement service.

2 - Reporting a crime and my rights during the investigation or trial

How can I report a crime?

Crimes can be reported to the competent public prosecutor's office in writing, verbally or by other means.

If you report a crime verbally, you will be warned of the consequences of filing false complaints. For reports filed verbally, a written record is drawn up, while reports filed by telephone or other telecommunication means are, where possible, recorded electronically and a formal note is drawn up.

Victims who report a crime receive a written acknowledgement containing the basic details of the crime reported. Victims who do not speak or understand the language used by the authorities can report the crime in their own language and are provided with an interpreter or other person who speaks and understands both the language of the competent authority and the victim's language. Victims who do not speak or understand the language used by the authorities can request to have the acknowledgement translated into their language free of charge.

If a crime report is submitted to a court, the police or the wrong public prosecutor's office, they take receipt of it and immediately forward it to the competent public prosecutor's office.

The public prosecutor immediately enters the crime report in the register of crime reports, except where the law states otherwise.

If a public prosecutor only receives news of a crime having been committed or they receive a report from the victim, they draw up a formal note, record it in the register of miscellaneous offence cases and proceed as provided for by law.

If the report contains no details of the crime, meaning that the public prosecutor is unable to identify what crime is being reported, they record it in the register of miscellaneous offence cases and ask the person reporting the crime to provide additional information within 15 days.

If the person reporting the crime fails to act on the request for additional information, the public prosecutor draws up an official note of this. Once the deadline for submitting additional information has expired, the public prosecutor must report this to a senior public prosecutor within eight days. The senior public prosecutor may order the crime report to be entered in the register of crime reports.

How do I find out what's happening with the case?

Two months after filing a criminal complaint or reporting a crime, the victim or the injured party may send the public prosecutor a request for information on the action taken in response to the complaint/report. The public prosecutor must reply within a reasonable period but no later than 30 days from the date of receipt of the written request, except where such a reply could undermine the proceedings. If the public prosecutor decides not to provide this information, they must inform the victim/injured party accordingly.

A victim participating in criminal proceedings as an injured party has the right to be informed of the outcome of the proceedings.

Am I entitled to legal aid (during the investigation or trial)? Under what conditions?

In addition to the above rights, before being interviewed victims of sexual crimes and human trafficking have the right to free consultation with a legal adviser and may be assigned a representative. The cost of the adviser/representative is paid for by the State.

Child victims have all the above rights as well as the right to a representative paid for by the State.

Crime victims have the right to primary and secondary legal aid. Such aid is provided free of charge to victims of violent crimes seeking compensation for the injury they have suffered as crime victims.

The Free Legal Aid Act makes provision for primary and secondary legal aid.

Primary legal aid covers general legal information, legal advice, submissions to public bodies, the European Court of Human Rights and international organisations in accordance with international treaties and internal rules of procedure, representation in proceedings before public bodies, and legal assistance in out-of-court dispute settlements.

Primary legal aid can be provided for any legal matter, provided that:

the applicant does not have the knowledge or ability to assert their rights;

the applicant has not received legal aid under special legislation;

the application submitted is not manifestly unfounded;

the applicant's economic situation is such that paying for professional legal assistance could jeopardise their livelihood or that of members of their household. Applicants seeking primary legal aid should contact a provider of primary legal aid directly.

Secondary legal aid covers legal advice, submissions in a procedure for protecting workers' rights before the employer, submissions in court proceedings, representation in court proceedings, legal aid in amicable dispute settlements, and exemption from the payment of legal costs and court fees.

Secondary legal aid may be granted if:

the proceedings are complex;

the applicant is incapable of representing themselves;

the applicant's economic situation is such that paying for professional legal assistance could jeopardise their livelihood or that of members of their household;

the litigation is not frivolous;

the applicant has not had their application rejected within the past six months for intentionally supplying inaccurate information; and the applicant has not received legal aid under special legislation.

Secondary legal aid is approved without a prior assessment of the applicant's economic situation, if the applicant is:

a child taking part in maintenance proceedings;

a victim of violent crime seeking compensation for the injury suffered as a result of the offence;

a beneficiary of maintenance payments under the special legislation governing social security rights, or a beneficiary of a cost-of-living allowance under the Act on the rights of Croatian Independence War veterans and their family members and the Act on the protection of military and civilian war veterans.

Applicants seeking secondary legal aid must submit their application to the competent office using the dedicated form.

Can I claim expenses (for taking part in the investigation/trial)? Under what conditions?

Defendants found guilty are ordered by the court to cover the costs of litigation, unless they are eligible for a full or partial exemption.

When criminal proceedings are suspended or when the court acquits the defendant or drops the charges, the court's decision/ruling must provide that the cost of the criminal proceedings under Article 145(2)(1)-(5) of this Act, the unavoidable costs incurred by the defendant and the unavoidable costs and fees of the defence attorney are to be borne by the State, except where otherwise provided by law.

Can I appeal if my case is closed before going to court?

Victims whose criminal complaints have been rejected may pursue criminal prosecution themselves.

If the public prosecutor finds that there are no grounds for prosecution for an offence prosecutable ex officio or for prosecuting any of the individuals reported, they must notify the victim of this within eight days and inform them that they may pursue prosecution themselves. This must also be done by a court if it issues a decision discontinuing proceedings because the public prosecutor has dropped prosecution in other cases.

Can I be involved in the trial?

Under this Act, the injured party to criminal proceedings has the right to:

use their mother tongue, including sign language, and request an interpreter, if they do not speak or understand Croatian, or a sign language interpreter, if the injured party is deaf or deafblind;

file an associated action for damages and motions for temporary injunctions;

legal representation;

present facts and adduce evidence;

attend the evidentiary hearing;

attend the proceedings, take part in the evidentiary proceedings and make a closing statement;

request access to the case file under Article 184(2) of this Act;

ask to be informed by the public prosecutor in respect of action taken on the basis of their report and file a complaint to a senior public prosecutor;

appeal;

seek restoration of the previous situation;

be notified of the outcome of the criminal proceedings.

What is my official role in the justice system? For example, am I or can I choose to be a: victim, witness, injured party, or private plaintiff?

Victims of crime are private individuals who have suffered physical or psychological harm, damage to property or a serious violation of their fundamental rights and freedoms as a direct consequence of a crime. Victims of crime can also mean the spouse, partner, life partner, informal life partner and descendant (s) of the person whose death was directly attributable to the crime, or, failing that, their ascendant(s) or sibling(s). of the person whose death was directly attributable to the crime. Any person legally maintained by the deceased is also considered to be a victim of that crime.

An injured party is a crime victim or a legal person that has suffered injury as a result of a crime and participates in criminal proceedings in that capacity.

The capacity of a party to or participant in the proceedings does not depend on that person's wish, but on the role that person had in the criminal matter.

Anyone can appear in any of the above roles, depending on the circumstances laid down by law; the choice that they have concerns the rights they wish to exercise as injured party or crime victim.

What are my rights and obligations in this role?

A victim of crime has the right to:

access support services for crime victims;

effective psychological and other professional assistance and support from bodies, organisations, and institutions supporting victims of crime, in accordance with the law;

protection from intimidation and retaliation;

protection of their dignity while being heard as a witness;

be heard without undue delay after filing a criminal complaint and to subsequently be questioned no more than is absolutely necessary for the purpose of the criminal proceedings;

be accompanied by a person of trust in whatever actions they participate in; minimal medical procedures and only if these are absolutely vital for the purpose of the criminal proceedings;

file a motion to prosecute or bring a private action under the Criminal Code, to participate in criminal proceedings as an injured party, to be informed about the dismissal of a criminal complaint (Article 206(3) of the Act) and about the decision of the public prosecutor to take no action, and to pursue prosecution individually without the public prosecutor;

be informed by the public prosecutor on the action taken on the basis of their complaint (Article 206a of the Act), and to lodge a complaint with a senior public prosecutor (Article 206b of this Act);

request and receive information without undue delay on the release of the offender from detention or remand, the offender's escape or release from prison, and on measures taken to ensure the victim's protection; request and receive information on any final decision terminating the criminal proceedings;
other rights as provided for by law.

A victim participating in criminal proceedings as an injured party has the right to:

file for damages and temporary injunctions;
legal representation;
present facts and adduce evidence;
attend the evidentiary hearing;
attend the proceedings, take part in the evidentiary proceedings and make a closing statement;
request access to the case file in accordance with the law;
ask to be informed by the public prosecutor in respect of action taken on the basis of their report and file a complaint to a senior public prosecutor;
appeal;
seek restoration of the previous situation;
be notified of the outcome of the criminal proceedings.

In addition to the victims' rights under this Act child victims enjoy the following rights: (1) representative provided free of charge, (2) personal data protection, (3) exclusion of the public. (Article 44(1) of the Criminal Procedure Act)

In addition to the victims' rights referred to in Article 43 of this Act, victims of sexual crimes and human trafficking enjoy the following rights: (1) free consultation before being interviewed, (2) a free representative, (3) to be interrogated, at the police or the public prosecutor's office, by a person of the same sex, and, if possible, by that same person if the interview is repeated, (4) to not reply to questions that are not related to the crime but concern the victim's private life, (5) to request to be interviewed by audio-visual means (Article 292(4) of this Act), (6) personal data protection, (7) exclusion of the public from the proceedings. (Article 44(4) of the Criminal Procedure Act)

During the investigation stage, crime victims who are private plaintiffs or injured parties may draw attention to all facts and adduce evidence that is material for ascertaining the crime, identifying the offender(s) and establishing their claims in the associated action for damages.

Both before and at all stages during the criminal proceedings, the Public Prosecutor's Office and the court must consider whether it is possible for the defendant to compensate the injured party for any loss caused by the crime. They must also inform the injured party of certain rights under law (e.g. the injured party's right to use their mother tongue, the right to file for damages, etc.).

Persons who are likely to have information on the crime, the offender or other pertinent circumstances can be summoned as witnesses.

Injured parties, injured parties acting as plaintiff and private plaintiffs can be questioned as witnesses.

A private plaintiff has the same rights as the public prosecutor with the exception of the rights belonging solely to a state authority.

Can I make a statement during the trial or give evidence? Under what conditions?

Under this Act, the injured party has the right to:

(4) draw attention to the facts and present evidence;
(5) attend the evidentiary hearing;
(6) attend the proceedings, take part in the evidentiary proceedings and make a closing statement (Article 51(1) of the Criminal Procedure Act).

A victim pursuing prosecution has the same rights as the public prosecutor with the exception of the rights belonging solely to a state authority.

A private plaintiff has the same rights as the public prosecutor with the exception of the rights belonging solely to a state authority. Private plaintiffs are subject to the same procedural provisions that apply to injured parties and plaintiffs.

At the hearing the chief judge invites all the parties to set out the evidence they intend to present at the main hearing. Each party is invited to comment on the other party's submissions.

What information will I receive during the trial?

During the investigation stage, crime victims who are private plaintiffs or injured parties may draw attention to all facts and adduce evidence that is material for ascertaining the crime, identifying the offender(s) and establishing their claims in the action for damages.

A victim participating in criminal proceedings as an injured party has the right to:

ask to be informed by the public prosecutor in respect of action taken on the basis of their report and file a complaint to a senior public prosecutor;
be informed that the criminal complaint has been dismissed or that the public prosecutor has decided to take no action;
receive notice of the outcome of the criminal proceedings.

Will I be able to access court files?

A victim participating in criminal proceedings as the injured party may access the case file.

3 - My rights after trial

Can I appeal against the ruling?

Victims participating in criminal proceedings as an injured party may appeal the ruling.

Authorised persons may appeal against a first-instance ruling within 15 days of the date of service of a copy of the ruling.

An appeal may be lodged by either litigant, the defence attorney or the injured party.

The injured party may appeal against the ruling on the grounds of the court's decision regarding the costs of the criminal proceedings or the claim for damages. However, if the state attorney has taken over prosecution from the injured party acting as private prosecutor, the latter may appeal on any grounds on which a ruling may be challenged.

What are my rights after sentencing?

Victims participating in criminal proceedings as an injured party may lodge an appeal and seek restoration of the previous situation.

Am I entitled to support or protection after the trial? For how long?

Victims and witnesses can turn to specialised departments of county courts for information and support at any point during criminal (or misdemeanour) proceedings, but before the ruling has been issued.

If victims or witnesses turn to these victim and witness support departments after the ruling has been issued, the departments will provide them with information consistent with their remit, and refer them to other organisations and services specialising in victims' or witnesses' needs.

The Independent support service for victims and witnesses of the Ministry of Justice provides victims, injured parties or their families with information on the offender's release from prison (automatic or conditional release). This information is provided to all victims of, and injured parties following, serious offences, such as crimes against life and limb, sexual crimes, violent crimes or war crimes.

In exceptional cases, when the Service finds that a victim of prolonged domestic violence or violence against women requires coordinated additional support, it informs the coordinator of the County Team for preventing and combating violence against women and domestic violence of the interview conducted with the victim and the problems he/she faces, and asks that the County Team take appropriate action. Where appropriate, this information is also forwarded to the competent police department and the competent social welfare centre, if the victim (child/person) is deprived of legal capacity, or to the competent probation office, if the offender has been released conditionally and is required to report regularly to the probation office.

In exceptional cases, when the Service concludes on the basis of information gathered from the victim (of a crime other than those mentioned above) that the victim absolutely requires additional support and protection, it may request action from the competent police department subject to the victim's consent.

Victim support is also provided by civil society organisations, immediately after the offence is committed, during the criminal proceedings, and after the trial, i. e. or after a final ruling has been issued. Support and assistance provided by civil society organisations depends on their remit.

What information will I be given if the offender is sentenced?

A written ruling with instructions on legal remedies is served on the plaintiff, the defendant and his/her defence attorney, the injured party (if the latter has the right to appeal), the party whose property has been confiscated by the ruling and the legal entity from which the proceeds are to be confiscated.

An injured party who does not have the right of appeal will be served the ruling as provided for by law, together with a note on his/her right to seek restoration of the previous situation. The final ruling is served on the injured party on request.

Will I be told if the offender is released (including early or conditional release) or escapes from prison?

Under the Criminal Procedure Act, the victim who has so requested will be informed by the police, without delay, of the end of detention or remand for the offender, except where such disclosure might put the offender at risk. The victim will also be informed of the measures taken to protect him/her, where such measures have been ordered.

Penitentiaries and prisons do not inform the Service for victims and witnesses of escaped prisoners, but send a notification of the offender's escape to police only; however, these rules are scheduled to be amended soon.

Victims have the right to be informed without delay, when they so request, of the offender's release from detention or remand and his/her escape or release from prison, and of the measures taken in the interest of the victim's safety.

Victims of serious crimes, i.e. crimes against life and limb, sexual crimes, violent crimes and war crimes, are informed of the offender's automatic or conditional release.

Will I be involved in release or parole decisions? For example, can I make a statement or lodge an appeal?

Any statement made by the victim of a violent crime and other relevant information pertaining to the victim are taken into account when a decision is considered to potentially allow the offender the benefit of spending weekends outside a penitentiary or prison. The victim's statement forms part of the conditional release file. However, the regulations currently in force do not provide for the victim to be involved in a conditional release decision and/or appeal against that decision.

4 - Compensation

What is the process for claiming damages from the offender? (e.g. court case, civil claim, adhesion procedure)

Under specific regulations, victims of crimes punishable by imprisonment of five or more years, who have suffered severe psychophysical trauma or have been seriously affected by the crime, have the right to a counsellor before giving testimony in criminal proceedings or filing a claim for damages; the counsellor's fees are to be borne by the government.

Claims for damages in criminal proceedings may be filed by persons authorised to pursue such claims in civil actions.

Crime victims filing a claim for damages must indicate whether they have obtained compensation or filed a claim for damages.

The court ordered the offender to pay me damages/compensation. How do I make sure the offender pays?

Once the decision on a claim for damages becomes final and enforceable, the injured party may request the court that issued the decision in first-instance proceedings to provide issue him/her with a certified copy of that decision, with an indication that the latter is enforceable.

If the decision does not lay down a deadline for compliance, the obligation imposed by the decision must be fulfilled within 15 days of the decision becoming final. After this deadline the fulfilment of the obligation becomes subject to enforcement.

If the offender does not pay, can the state pay me an advance? Under what conditions?

A victim of an intentional crime may be compensated from the State budget under a specific act. Where the victim has won a claim for damages, the amount of compensation depends on the amount awarded; the court deciding on the claim for damages will take the same action where the victim has already been compensated from the State budget, the court.

Am I entitled to compensation from the state?

Victims of intentional violent crimes committed in Croatia after 1 July 2013 are eligible for compensation:

if they are citizens or residents of Croatia or another EU Member State;

if they have suffered grievous bodily harm or serious deterioration of health as a result of the crime;

if the crime is reported to or filed by the police or the public prosecutor's office within six months from the date on which it was committed, regardless of whether or not the offender is known;

if they have submitted a request on an official form, along with the requisite documentation (the form can be obtained at any police station, public prosecutor's office or municipal or county court; it is also available online, on the websites of the Ministry of Justice, the Ministry of the Interior, the Public Prosecutor and municipal and county courts.

The victim has the right to be compensated:

the costs of medical treatment in accordance with the national ceilings; this compensation is only granted where the victim cannot be compensated under a health insurance cover; up to HRK 35 000 for lost earnings.

Am I entitled to compensation if the offender is not convicted?

The victim may be awarded compensation even if the perpetrator is unknown or if criminal proceedings have not been initiated.

Am I entitled to an emergency payment while I wait for the decision on my compensation claim?

Emergency payments are not provided for by Croatian law.

The Victim and Witness Support Service (Služba za podršku žrtvama i svjedocima) of the Croatian Ministry of Justice:

provides a system of support for victims and witnesses coordinates the work of the victim and witness support departments of courts provides victims, injured parties or members of their families with information on the offender's release from prison (unconditional release or release on probation) provides information on rights and emotional support to victims and witnesses from abroad who are invited to give evidence in Croatian courts through the international legal assistance mechanism, and to Croatian victims and witnesses who are invited to give evidence in foreign courts through that mechanism.

The Service sends victims and witnesses information letters with contact information receives compensation claims from victims of crime, prepares material for meetings of the Committee for Compensation of Crime Victims (Odbor za novčanu naknadu žrtvama kaznenih djela) and provides assistance in cross-border cases

What types of support can I receive from non-governmental organisations?

Depending on the type of organisation and its remit, various types of assistance and support are available: psychological, emotional, legal, practical, accommodation, medical, security, and in-court support.

More information and the list of these organisations by county is available on the website of the Croatian Ministry of Justice.

Twelve probation offices are in the process of being established in Croatia. The purpose is to add a human dimension to the enforcement of criminal sanctions, ensure more efficient reintegration of offenders into society, and provide victims, injured parties and the families of victims and offenders with assistance.

The National Probation Service participates in preparations to resettle offenders in the community after they have been released from prison. This includes helping them to find accommodation and work and preparing them, as well as victims, injured parties and the families of victims, for the release. The Service also makes arrangements for the provision of psychosocial support to victims, injured parties and victims' and the offender's families.

Where the offender to be released is serving a sentence for a sexual offence, an offence against life and limb or a violent offence, the Probation Service is required to inform the victims, injured parties or their families accordingly and without delay.

The contact details of individual probation offices and the Probation Department of the Ministry of Justice are available here.

Victims of crime can contact the police by email policija@mup.hr or prevencija@mup.hr, or by dialling 192 (24/7) or +385 1 3788 111.
